I cannot physically be there due to health constraints, but I am funding my son and several of his peers to go - paid for their transportation, meals, lodging, even pet sitting. If you are like me and can't physically go, please do your part, large or small.

Have your son use an OtterBox case with plastic holster.

Wanna make a difference? Nows your chance! I want everybody to click this link and email DuckDuckGo telling them to REPLACE wikipedia in search results with INFOGALACTIC

Prefilled email

[\[email protected\]](#)

According to Wikipedias own founder Wikipedia is too biased

<https://www.foxnews.com/media/wikipedia-co-founder-larry-sanger-says-online-dictionary-scrapped-neutrality-favors-lefty-politics> and infogalactic is a much better alternative! And it's more than possible for DuckDuckGo simply replace the Wikipedia at the top of search results with infogalactic!!

If everybody sends them an email they might do it!

Make a difference!!

It's amazing how many people are worried about "gun laws". This isn't a protest, it's a call to action. No women, no children, and if you aren't coming armed, you probably shouldn't come at all.

The blue would be the first ones to follow the "weapons free" order when the corrupt leftist mayor issues it against patriots showing their support for Trump. And most of the blue will go along with these orders because they want their pensions and that's it.

parent permalink save report block reply

But wouldn't be weapons free themselves. Thus why I say take their kit if they fall and keep moving. Don't wait around or attempt to assist.

The Second Amendment to the U.S. Constitution reads: A well regulated Militia, being necessary to the security of a free State, the right of the people to keep and bear Arms, shall not be infringed.

I don't see hunting or target shooting as the reason for this 244 year old amendment. It is quite clear what the intended meaning is.

What do we do when a tyrant hides? We hunt for them.

This is why I really hope it's going to become obvious by Jan 6th that this will be a victory rally. Otherwise, you're going to have unarmed people, with families, showing up to what they think is going to be another Trump rally, armed patriots mixed in, and of course, you'll have armed Antifa/BLM (under the protection of the DC police) show up. That situation will explode.

I think Trump is smarter than that - I expect to see big moves before then.

I won't say what I do. Just that the machine I operate is not easy to operate, and can hurt people if not done properly.

I'm trying to find a way to get there. But I live below the poverty line. And my car would run out of gas before I even got out of the state...

... not all of us can just go. Despite what assholes say.

Though if we get that 600 dollar check from the government I'll go... cause there is an irony to the corrupt government paying me to fight the corrupt government.

Sure people can, but how do I make that thousand mile trip?

I'm trying to find a way, but it's not looking good. I want to. But I doubt I can get there. I'm at the southern tip of florida man. I'm a LONG FUCKING WAY from DC. It's like asking someone to just out of the blue drive across the continent. Cause that's exactly what I'd have to do.

It's not as simple as 'just go'...

It's probably better to use something encrypted. Coordinate the formation of smaller groups in a central location, then actually meet the local people and exchange communication information (e.g. with signal). The more decentralized and autonomous the groups are, the harder it is for the feds to track planning.

honestly I saw someone citing the lyrics of the battle hymn of the republic and honestly, instead of simply waving signs or guns and yelling, if a large group of people legit started singing marching tunes with rifles it would have some serious optics.

it also would make the group appear bigger than it was, a sort of illusion, if you actually got a huge group of people and perhaps some choirs in on it. and fuck it, why not try and encourage vets to go in uniform? fuck it.

I bet that would draw a lot of attention if you were able to make the audio cover the entire city without any microphones, just sheer people.

And it wouldnt even have to be just optics either. its basically fighting words.

Not sure why folks think you can't check a weapon... it's legal when flying from most states to most states. Just don't land in NY, NJ, DC, IL, or a few other hellholes if you're taking a handgun. Fly to Richmond or Charlotte or something and just drive up to DC.

Also, you can ship firearms to yourself in care of a third party in advance of your arrival. Straight from the hopefully soon to be abolished ATF: “A person may ship a firearm to him or herself in care of another person in the state where he or she intends to hunt or engage in any other lawful activity. The package should be addressed to the owner “in the care of” the out-of-state resident. Upon reaching its destination, persons other than the owner may not open the package or take possession of the firearm.”

I live in Baltimore, but can't drive because I can't see. I don't think I'd be useful with any combat.

I'll unfortunately be homeless come the 6th so freight is the only kind of train i'll be riding. Not much sleep to be had there, lmao.

My 2 sons, the Marines, and I are booked on Amtrak and at the Fairfield Inn on H Street! We booked there at the March for Trump on Dec 12. Good access to Freedom Plaza and to the US Capitol.

It isn't mine, I found it, either here or doing an image search, I thought it was amazing, too and saved it. The lettering was just added later

Many Kudos to whoever did make it, it would be a popular poster for sale, I am sure!

That's photoshopped from a poster at the DJT store. Poster was originally recruiting lawyers.
